

The Sheldon Chumir Foundation for Ethics in Leadership

presents

Homelessness: Energizing Solutions for Calgary

- Why is homelessness increasing in a city as affluent as Calgary?
- Are different attitudes needed to enhance constructive approaches to the homelessness crisis?
- Why are more working individuals and families unable to find affordable homes?
- Can ethical and sustainable approaches be found to address the need for both immediate shelter and low cost accommodation in this city?

Moderator: Donna McElligott, CBC Radio

Panelists:

Gordon Laird, 2003 Chumir Foundation Media Fellow

Kathleen Cairns, University of Calgary

Allan MacRae, Board Member, Calgary Drop-In Centre

Carrie Neilson, Homeless Awareness Calgary

Monday December 1, 2003

7:30 – 9:30pm

EPCOR Engineered Air Theatre, 205 8th Ave SE

The event is FREE, but please RSVP at 244-6666 or

info@chumirethicsfoundation.ca

Donations of small personal care items are welcome, and will be conveyed to organizations dealing directly with Calgary's homeless.