

---

Offensive Speech: What's legal? What's ethical?

---

---

Thursday, January 24, 2008 5:30-8:30pm
2nd floor, Kahanoff Centre 1202 Centre St. S
CALGARY
FREE EVENT, Supper served

---

Words can offend. With diversity more evident in Canada, complaints about offensive speech are often linked to discrimination. But freedom of speech is the bedrock of our democracy. So, where should the lines be drawn when speech is offensive?

Panel:

Alan Borovoy

General Counsel, Canadian Civil Liberties Association

Stephen Ward

Professor, Journalism Ethics, UBC

Micheal Vonn

Policy Director, B.C. Civil Liberties Association

SHELDON CHUMIR FOUNDATION FOR ETHICS IN LEADERSHIP
To register please call Elaine at 244-6666, email info@chumirethicsfoundation.ca
Register online: www.chumirethicsfoundation.ca

