VIEWING INSTRUCTIONS:

For Widows Vista and XP users:

Windows Media Player must be installed.

Internet Explorer is the preferred browser to access the URL. Other browsers may have problems.

Windows 7 has not been tested as yet.

Mac OS X users

Use Safari as the browser to access the URL.

Select the Real Media link on the browser interface. Mac users should install Real Player from <http://www.real.com>.

Microsoft does not directly support Windows Media in OS X. Do not use the Windows Media link unless you have installed the software called Flip4Mac which may work but we cannot guarantee success with it.

If people have problems viewing the webcast, it is generally because of firewall issues. Check with your IT people to ensure that media viewing is enabled.
